OWNER OF POOL (Print) _____

ADDRESS/LOCATION OF POOL: _____

TYPE OF POOL: Aboveground _____ Inground _____ HotTub _____ Spa _____

Fence To Be Constructed By _____

“Every person owning land on which there is situated a swimming pool, (in-ground, above-ground, on ground, hot tub, or spa) which contains twenty-four (24) inches (610 mm) or more of water in depth at any point, shall erect and maintain thereon an adequate enclosure surrounding the pool area, sufficient to provide protection against potential drowning and near drowning by restricting access.”

The laws and building regulations of the State of Connecticut and the Town of Redding shall at all times have precedence over drawings and specifications. Anything contrary to said laws and regulations that may at any time appear in drawings and specifications, or in the work executed, shall be corrected without delay upon the receipt of due notice from the Building Official. The granting of a permit for the proposed work shall not be assumed or construed any right or permission to do anything contrary to the laws and regulations of the aforesaid, under any circumstances whatsoever.

I, the owner, hereby agree to comply with the adopted Connecticut State Building Code, concerning Pool Safety Devices and Pool Construction.
